Tech-Protect Defense Air is a durable protective case designed for the most demanding users. Made from lightweight yet sturdy TPU material, it provides excellent protection against impacts, drops, and scratches. The case's design is crafted to fully secure the watch's case while not limiting access to buttons or the device's functionality.

The matte finish and rugged design give the smartwatch a sporty, outdoor character. Defense Air is perfect for intense workouts, expeditions in challenging conditions, and everyday use, providing maximum protection without compromising on appearance or comfort. Installation and removal are quick and intuitive, making this case a practical accessory for any user.
