A two-piece armor that provides incredible shock absorption from falls. Made from a combination of TPU and polycarbonate, it performs excellently in all extreme situations. The Supcase Unicorn Beetle Pro features a polycarbonate front frame that integrates a polycarbonate lens with a hardness of 5H, which effectively separates the display from flat surfaces, allowing your device to feel safe.

Every Supcase product meets the military standard of resistance MIL STD 810G 516.6, which means it has fallen 26 times from a height of 2 meters.
