The Spigen Airskin Pro case is a stylish and functional accessory that combines modern design with reliable protection. The back is made of transparent material that highlights the original look of the tablet, while the front flap made of high-quality Velo leather serves as a foldable stand.

Increased protection is provided by reinforced corners and Air Cushion technology, which effectively absorbs shocks and protects the tablet from damage during everyday use. The front flap is magnetic and can be easily detached, while the intelligent automatic on/off system ensures convenience in operation.

The Spigen Airskin Pro case combines functionality, elegance, and safety, ensuring that the tablet remains fully protected while maintaining a modern, minimalist character.
